R U Legal?

FREE community legal education sessions for young people, parents, educators and community groups

R U Legal? is a program of free community legal education sessions and resources for young people, parents, educators and community groups. Topics include:

- Cyber bullying
- Sexting and image-based abuse
- Sex and consent
- School fights
- Drugs and alcohol
- Cars and driving
- Family violence and restraining orders
- Police powers
- The criminal justice system
- Common offences for young people

Sessions are presented by Legal Aid WA lawyers and use real-life examples to demonstrate legal consequences for young people. Sessions can be delivered to whole year groups or smaller classroom size groups and generally go for one hour (or one school period).

To book a free R U Legal? session call 9261 6317, email cle@legalaid.wa.gov.au, or visit our website www.legalaid.wa.gov.au and complete the online booking form.
